International Student Teaching

The Bagwell College of Education, the EPP, and Kennesaw State University are committed to providing opportunities for global teaching and learning for education students. In an effort to prepare teacher preparation candidates to teach diverse populations of students in today’s classrooms, international student teaching study abroad placements are available Spring & Fall 2017 in international schools in Brazil, Costa Rica, China, Ecuador, Trinidad & Tobago, and Uganda.

Interest forms and applications are on the international field placements website: www.bagwell.kennesaw.edu/bcoe/ife
