The Bagwell College of Education, the EPP, and Kennesaw State University are committed to providing opportunities for global teaching and learning for education students. In an effort to prepare teacher preparation candidates to teach diverse populations of students in today’s classrooms, international student teaching study abroad placements are available Fall 2015 in international schools P-12 in Brazil, Ecuador, Costa Rica, Uganda, and Shanghai United International School in China K-12.

Interest forms and applications are on the international field placements website: www.bagwell.kennesaw.edu/bcoe/ife
