FBI Agent Taylor Dervish

Taylor Dervish has been a Special Agent with the FBI since June 2014. She is assigned to the Violent Crimes Against Children (VCAC) Squad in the FBI office in Atlanta, Georgia. The VCAC squad has the responsibility of investigating violent federal criminal offenses including the coercion, enticement, and commercial sexual exploitation of children and adults, along with child pornography related offenses and abductions and International Parental Kidnappings.

Taylor is also the Task Force Coordinator of the Metro Atlanta Child Exploitation and Human Trafficking Task Force (MATCH). MATCH is the largest human trafficking task force in the country and is routinely responsible for over 100 juvenile recoveries in metro Atlanta each year.
